MicroLingual® Technology The World's Perfect Delivery System

Many companies market products as "fast dissolving," yet they are still compressed tablets. Only Superior Source provides a comprehensive line of vitamins, minerals, and herbal formulas in MicroLingual® Instant Release soft-molded tablets.

- Crafted using proprietary Low Pressure Hydromolecular (LPH) technology
- Trade secret MicroLingual® delivery system for quick absorption—no need to "swallow a pill"
- Quick dissolving for faster absorption

The MicroLingual® Solution: Taking Health to a New Level with Vitamin K

Vitamin K performs a key function in the body: assisting in the transport of calcium. This simple act affects health through a wide range of critical activities from the molecular to the structural level. Vitamin K supports blood coagulation<sup>1</sup>, brain health<sup>3</sup>, bone strength<sup>1</sup>, and heart health<sup>2</sup>, and prevents hardening of the arteries<sup>2</sup>. The Superior Source line of fast-absorbing, instant release MicroLingual® tablets is ideal for optimal vitamin K delivery and perfect everyone who hates to swallow pills.

40-Year Old Established Company Takes Care of You and Your Team

Our complete staff training equips your retail team to explain the unique advantages of the MicroLingual® delivery system so they can answer customer questions with confidence. We include samples of our products with EVERY order. Your customers (and staff) get to experience the exceptional MicroLingual® delivery technology firsthand.
