

COMPOUNDS.

Not commodities.

Over the years, pharmacies have been pressured into a commodity business model. Healthcare practitioners and educated consumers are driving expansion in compounding and specialty pharmacy.

Compounds—and compounding pharmacies—are NOT commodities.

Maximize your compounding investment to diversify your business, serve new markets and expand your range of offerings. Letco Medical is committed to supporting your growth and profitability in specialty compounding with quality ingredients, a vast array of supplies and equipment, advanced technical services and strategic education programs.
