

Time to cross the Central Fill chasm

Your patients have new expectations. They expect you to provide personalized care, MTM, clinical services, wellness and medication adherence programs, and an improved overall experience.

Our forward-thinking Central Fill technologies help you meet those expectations head on.

By deploying Central Fill, you redirect large volumes of Rx's out of your outpatient pharmacies, optimize Rx fulfillment, lower your cost to fill Rx's, and reduce wait times. Most importantly, you reposition your pharmacists as true care providers.

It's time to cross that strategic technology chasm and deliver the services your patients expect.
